A Message from your President ...

Hi all,

I hope you've had an eventful summer so far, even if it has just been afternoon trail rides or late nights with horse show friends.

We have been working on exciting up and coming events for ASHAV and hope you will continue to support our new endeavors. With the annual ASHAV Horse Show right around the corner, September 27-29 at the Virginia Horse Center in Lexington VA, we are thrilled to finally get to share a few things to look forward to. I want to remind you that any and all donations, big or small, can help and are greatly appreciated! Sponsorship information can be found on page 6 for any of those who are interested. If you cannot sponsor, we can always use volunteers! New this year... we are trying something a little different for this year's T-shirt design.. we want YOU all to come up with a design! Complete details about the design contest can be found on page 7 so check it out and submit a design!

Because we know the next generation is the future of the horse industry, we are making efforts to revamp the Youth Club. Adrian Lawrence has graciously taken on this task as well as heading up Junior Judging, which will be held at the ASHAV show. Please get in contact with her if you would like to join or be a part of any upcoming activities she will be hosting.

Mark your calendars for the ASHAV Convention held March 2 in Lexington VA. More details to follow in future newsletters, so stay tuned!

As always if you want anything to be mentioned in upcoming newsletters or social media outlets please contact Janet Webster or Frankie Sue Snider and they will be sure to get your information included.

See you all soon,

Kiani

Hope to see you at the

Did You Know?

- ◆ The first ASHAV Horse Show was held on August 31 and September 1, 1984 at the Hill & Dale Stock Farm in Chatham, Va. The Show offered trophies and a $10,000 prize list for about 50 classes, primarily for Saddlebreds but with some Morgan and Western classes to attract local exhibitors. One Saddlebred / Morgan judge and one Western judge tied the classes. In 1988 the ASHAV Horse Show moved to the Virginia Horse Center, and was expanded from two to three days. Subsequently, ASHAV futurity and Grand National classes were added to the show. In 1992 the show moved indoors to the new Anderson Coliseum, and in 1994 the show expanded to four days and added a panel of three judges. For 2018, the show will have 115 classes and 22 academy classes. This year's show will feature a full line-up of classes for Saddlebreds, Hackneys, & Friesians, as well as UPHA Classes, Futurities, and Academy Classes. Go to <https://ashav.net/shows/ashav/> for more information.

Virginia Horse Industry Board Increases added money for Virginia Foaled American Saddlebreds

For the past several years, the Virginia Horse Industry Board (VHIB) has approved additional money to the American Saddlebred Horse Association of Virginia (ASHAV) futurities through its "Virginia Bred" Grant program. VHIB has approved for 2018 an additional $2,000.00 to be added to the futurity payouts at the ASHAV Horse Show in September.

In addition to the futurity, still following the guidelines of the mission statement for the VHIB in the promotion of Virginia bred horses, they have awarded an additional $2,000.00 to be given to American Saddlebreds born in Virginia that compete in non-futurity two, three and four year old classes at the ASHAV horse show in 2018. This added money will go to the breeder.

This is the first time money has been added to these classes for the breeders and it is very exciting! We hope this will be a great incentive for Virginia breeders and trainers.

We are very appreciative to the VHIB for the help they are giving the Virginia American Saddlebred community.
